Kairos Walk at Perry Correctional

Deacon John Leininger • john@saclemson.org

To be sure that all have had the opportunity to see this information from a recent Wednesday Wake UP, we are reprinting and asking you to consider how you might help with this important ministry. Deacon John wrote...

Due to the pandemic, it has been three years since the last Kairos Walk at Perry State Correctional Institution. Kairos is a 4-day retreat in prison, presented by Christian volunteers from Christian Churches all around the upstate. This retreat is similar to Christ Renews His Parish and Cursillo. Actually, it was first run by Catholics in the Florida Prison System. Eventually, other Christian denominations were invited to participate, and it has spread across the country. Originally called "Cursillo Inside," this retreat was renamed Kairos (which means— a propitious moment for decision or action). The upcoming Walk at Perry is going to start on Wednesday, October 5, and run through Sunday, October 8. Saint Andrew has two volunteers on this Walk's team, Tom Brennan and myself. And we are asking for your support as well.

You can help with prayers. There will be a prayer wheel sign-up available soon to cover every hour – day and night – from 3:00 PM on Thursday, October 5, through 3:00 PM on October 8. We hope you will consider signing up for a time slot. In addition, for the Walk to be successful, the team needs 6,000 dozen cookies. That was not a mistake – it is not 6,000 cookies, it is 6,000 dozen cookies. (For those interested, go to <https://bit.ly/1-page-cookie-directions> for suggested recipes, guidelines for dos and don'ts, packaging instructions, and drop off times.)

Churches all over the Upstate are helping to bake cookies. Between Tom and me, we hope to bring in between 300 to 400 dozen cookies from Saint Andrew. Also in the attachment, there is an explanation on why so many cookies are needed – it is worth reading. If you have any concerns or questions please contact me (Deacon John) at 864-903-0050 or john@saclemson.org. You can bake the cookies ahead of time, freeze them, and bring them to the Parish Hall before Masses on the weekend of September 30/October 1 or to the Parish Office (during regular office hours) the next week up until noon on Wednesday, October 4, when Tom Brennan and I will load the car and head out for the last team meeting.

Volunteers are also needed to help with cooking the meals Thursday through Sunday. This will take place at St. George Greek Orthodox Church, 406 North Academy Street, Greenville. The menu and food are already taken care of, and a kitchen coordinator will be scheduling volunteers. If you can help for one meal or many, again, contact me at john@saclemson.org, and I will put you in touch with that coordinator.

Please know that your prayers, cookies, or time helping with meal prep, have a lasting impact on the lives of many. Thank you. Deacon John

Dealing with loss of a family member or close friend can be especially difficult alone. If you feel you would benefit from meeting with others who have experienced a similar loss, a bereavement support group meets monthly from 12:30–1:30 PM the third Sunday of each month. The next meeting will be Sunday, October 15, in Newman Hall (136 Wington).

Lost & Found

For lost items, please check the LOST & FOUND box by the food drop-off in the vestibule or contact Nancy in the office. Some items are being held in the office.

A Note From the Pastor

You've often heard me say that biblical justice – and so the Church's social morality – is not the fairness depicted by the blind Lady Justice on the Supreme Court building's pediment. Biblical justice is "right relationship," and more often than not, such is never simply quid pro quo. Biblical justice is more like the justice exercised in family life.

Who of you parents loves each of your children in exactly the same way so that each gets the same measurement of your affection and your time? In reality, each child is loved, but such is manifested concretely in different ways.

Dad walking with his two kids, aged 5 and 2, holding their hands for their safety, quickly breaks the grip and leaves the 5-year old alone to run after the 2-year old whose squirming set her free to head for the traffic. The dyslexic child gets more help with homework than the child without that challenge. You get the picture.

And so God would have it. But us?

The poet WH Auden wrote: "For the error bred in the bone/ Of each woman and each man/ Craves what it cannot have:/ Not universal love, / But to be loved alone." Being loved without competition from anyone or anything else. Wanting God and everyone else to love us above all others is the "error bred in the bone."

Today's Gospel is not about labor relations. It's about the love-unto-the-Cross that God has for each of us. Expressed in ways uniquely suited to each of us. And we struggle with that.

Yet the parable leaves us fearing that something's not right. And so we grouse to think that the deathbed conversion "gets" someone what we have "worked" for all our lives. We prefer the practice of charity to that of God's justice. There will always be a need for charity. But as a way of life, biblical justice – loving as God loves – should always be the norm. Yet, we push back thinking that those who work longer and harder are deserving of more. Feeling that the Good Thief should at least do some time in purgatory.

Our itchiness with today's Gospel is a reminder of how much further we need to go to love one another – not simply as we love ourselves – but as Jesus loves us. Not only personally, but as being that "salt, light, and leaven" in our world. Bible-believing people like ourselves need to be at the forefront of reworking the ways we share the concrete manifestations of God's love such as education, housing, nourishment, having a voice in public affairs, and health care.

The story of the prodigal son ends with the father's plea to the elder brother. It shows us that God's love is universal, expressed not in some generic way, but as each of us needs to be loved. As God sees that need.

Healing Prayer Ministry

HEALING PRAYER IS OFFERED IN THE CHAPEL AFTER SUNDAY MORNING MASSES

Saint Teresa of Calcutta: Dear Jesus, help me to spread Your fragrance everywhere I go. Flood my soul with Your spirit and love. Penetrate and possess my whole being so utterly that all my life may only be a reflection of You. Shine through me and be so in me that every soul I come in contact with may feel Your presence. Let them look up and see no longer me but only Jesus. Stay with me so that I may begin to shine as You shine, so that through You I may become a light to others. Amen.

Children's Liturgy of the Word, for ages 4–8, is offered at 8:30 AM Mass following the Faith Formation calendar. The children are dismissed with their catechist before the readings and return to their families after the Creed.

Sunday Morning Faith Formation

Laura Witt • laura@saclemson.org

With Faith formation underway, we are all enjoying return to friends, study, and prayer. With summer officially over, Labor Day behind us, and our children in the swing of back to school work, it may be beneficial to use this time to teach our kids about the dignity of work. The following list has been compiled from teachingCatholicKids.com.

Ways to Teach about the Dignity of Work:

1. Work is good.
2. Sin makes work hard.
3. Work isn't everything
4. Work must respect the dignity of the worker.
5. Work ought to contribute to the good of society.
6. Work can be a form of prayer.

REMINDER: The chapel and church are closed when Clemson plays at home.
Remainning home game dates are:
September 23, October 7, and November 4, 11, and 18.

FAQs – the Allen Organ

Jamie Dean · jamie@saclemson.org

CAMPUS EDGE BONUS CONCERT • SEPTEMBER 30 @ 7:00PM

Where are the pipes? The organ in Saint Andrew Church, though not an actual pipe organ, uses technology called digital tone generation, or sampling of actual pipe sounds from fine organs, through digital reproduction of the wave form.

What are all of those buttons on the organ? Each of the three keyboards, or manuals, contains 61 keys. There are 50 stops on the sides of the console (case), each stop or drawknob controlling a unique type of sound such as a particular flute, string, reed, or principal voice. So, when the organist “pulls out all the stops,” they are sounding many ranks of pipes (or the digital equivalent) at once, creating multiple layers of sounds as an orchestra might do. The small, round buttons underneath each keyboard allow the organist to pre-set different combinations of stops without pulling drawknobs individually.

All of these features will be on display, aurally and visually, at the organ recital presented by Jamie Dean on Saturday, September 30, at 7:00PM. See you there!

Our Weekly Parish Tithe

Kristen Lawson · kristen.n.lawson@gmail.com

The week’s tithe goes to Bread for the World. One in ten people around the world go to bed hungry at night. One in four children under age five are severely malnourished. But it doesn’t have to be that way. Bread for the World Institute provides nonpartisan policy analysis and strategies to end hunger. The Institute has been educating opinion leaders, policymakers, and the public about hunger in the United States and abroad since 1975. Bread for the World’s grassroots mobilization and bipartisan advocacy in 2022 significantly impacted furthering policies that can help reduce hunger in the U.S. and internationally. Their work remains dedicated to the estimated 828 million people around the world who are experiencing hunger, in hopes that one day soon, they will no longer worry about where their next meal will come from. Find out more at <http://www.bread.org>.

For there will never cease to be poor in the land. Therefore, I command you, ‘You shall open wide your hand to your brother, to the needy and to the poor, in your land.’ – Deuteronomy 15:11

Hunger Awareness and Clemson Community Care Food Drive

On behalf of Clemson Community Care, thanks to all who made our food drive a success. We’ve put a lot of peanut butter, pasta, and vegetables on the shelves at CCC – over 6000 pounds of goods have been donated during our September Drive. What more can be done?

As our youth continue to bring donations to the altar each Sunday, can you also continue to drop off a donation for CCC? As with so many other local agencies, CCC needs our support throughout the year.

Thus says the LORD of hosts: Judge with true justice and show kindness and compassion toward each other. – Zechariah 7:9

Trunk or Treat is Coming – Sunday, October 29

3:00–4:00PM (Set up begins at 2:00PM)

Trunk or Treat offers fun for all ages. Children under twelve are invited to dress up, visit trunks, and play games for candy and prizes. Participate in the costume contest – prizes for age groups and themed family costumes.

Parishioners are encouraged to provide a trunk. Don a costume or simply hand out candy as part of the fun. Bring a lawn chair and cheer for the children as they make their way around the event.

Lots of help is needed to make this parish event a success:

- provide a trunk
- donate candy
- help with the games
- contribute a sweet for the “sweets walk”
- cheer on the participants

To volunteer for a trunk or sweet, email Erica Brady at ebrady495@att.net or call 864-221-8477. Sponsored by Generations in Faith.
