Novena for Life

Pray the rosary for the nine days of the Novena starting November 11 and plan to join the Knights and others at Saint Andrew Chapel next Sunday, November 19, at 4:45 PM to conclude the Novena – before the 5:15 PM Mass in the church. To commemorate and bolster this important cause, councils will promote a novena, nine days of sustained prayer, to build up a culture of life in our parishes, homes, and wider community. Knights and their families will come together in both public and private acts of prayer to promote the protection of life. The protection of life is a sustained prayer intention of the Church and, in particular, of the Knights of Columbus. We remain firmly committed to defending the right to life of every human being – from the moment of conception to natural death.

Dealing with loss of a family member or close friend can be especially difficult alone. If you feel you would benefit from meeting with others who have experienced a similar loss, a bereavement support group meets monthly from 12:30–1:30 PM the third Sunday of each month. The next meeting will be Sunday, November 19, in Newman Hall.

A Note From the Pastor

Last weekend one of the news pages I follow made a big deal about the upcoming this past Tuesday, Election Day. I quickly checked the date of the news story, thinking I’d missed a whole year, but, no, the story was about elections this year. I hadn’t been paying attention (cf. last week’s bulletin note) and several states were, indeed, having important local elections.

When I was a kid, my pastor always used the Sunday before elections to impress on us the need to make our voices heard. And while he never named names, he invariably included something to the effect, “And you know who to vote for.” But did we?

As we wrap up another Church year, we’re getting deeper into the run-up to Election 2024. In the center-stage presidential race, the Blues are running an octogenarian whose platform is of legislative accomplishments that won’t bear full fruit for years to come. We don’t have attention spans that long. He’s for abortion rights, which disqualifies him for many Catholics. He’s hugely internationalist. The Reds are running a retread under numerous federal and state indictments whose legislative platform – at least as of today – is 8 years old. Currently his personal goal, if elected, is to punish his personal detractors, righting the outrages against him since leaving office. If elected, the Blues will likely continue staffing the federal government with professionals. If elected, the Reds will de-professionalize the bureaucracy and appoint those loyal to the person of the new president. And try to stem the middle class tax breaks of 2017 that expire in 2025 and 2026. At least a lot of Reds and Blues hope. But seniors of either color will grapple with medical costs that outstrip their inflation-caused bump in Social Security.

All this is taking place as violence rules the day. Violence from the barrel of a gun directed against school kids, bowlers, and shoppers, and violence from the swill of fear so many have of the “other.” This leave big segments of our citizenry living in fear because they’re the wrong religion, the wrong race, or the wrong something else. Add the consequences of high inflation, and the pre-election “smell” is not unlike that of late 1920s, early 1930s Germany.

The above is a take on the milieu in which Gospel living is meant to be “salt, light, and leaven.” Gospel living is meant to continue as it began the first Christmas: God becoming flesh and blood and showing the human family how to make the best – as God sees it – of our own common humanity. Our fellow travelers through everyday life have a right – given who we Christians say we are and what the Gospel is about – to expect from us what Jesus offered to the folks among whom he traveled and whom he taught by deeds as well as words. What he offered was the Cross, which before it became wood was compassion, healing, and justice.

For us, the Cross includes voting.

Parish Online Giving Gets a Facelift!

Beginning November 15, you may notice that our online giving page has a new look. Please be assured that nothing else has changed. Any passwords, scheduled transactions, or accounts that have been set up remain the same. Vanco is simply updating their platform with a new format easier to use on current electronic devices. There is even a mobile app available. For most of us, the change won’t even be noticed until we set up our 2024 giving. That being said, when you click on GIVE from the parish website, you will first be directed to an overview page so you can get acquainted with the changes. As always, please do not hesitate to contact the Parish Office for assistance.

Christ Renews His Parish Men’s and Women’s Weekends

MEN: FEBRUARY 10–11 • WOMEN: MARCH 2–3 • NO OVERNIGHT STAY

O God of Creation, you have blessed us with the changing of the seasons. As we embrace these autumn months, may the earlier setting of the sun remind us to take time to rest. Step back from the busyness and demands of your everyday life and spend some time with Jesus. We will share Scripture together, pray together, sing together, and celebrate the sacraments together. We will get to know one another, laugh, and maybe shed a few tears. Is Jesus calling you?

Relax and Renew... For more information or to register, contact the parish office or go to www.saclemson.org/christ-renews-his-parish.

Faith Formation

Laura Witt • laura@saclemson.org

FAITH FORMATION REMINDER:

NO CLASS November 19 and 26 for Thanksgiving Break.

IN LIGHT OF VETERANS DAY: Let’s remember to include our children in a proper acknowledgement and prayer for the brave men and women who have served, and currently serve, our country as members of the armed forces. We thank them for all they have done for America, and we will pray for healing for those who are suffering as a result of conflicts around the world...

Saint Cecilia Sing

Jamie Dean · jamie@saclemson.org

November 22 is the feast day of Saint Cecilia, the patron saint of music and musicians. She is known for “singing in her heart to the Lord,” which makes one wonder if that’s what’s happening when we have a song playing over and over inside our head! (Last weekend’s earworm for me was “Saints and Beloved of God.”)

Here at Saint Andrew, we’ll again celebrate Saint Cecilia in a simple way at Sunday Masses on November 19. Instead of a choral or instrumental prelude, the gathering congregation will be invited to choose songs from our hymnal. Please plan to arrive at the church about twenty minutes early if you don’t want to miss this hymn sing. You can start now (before Mass, please not during the homily!) to scan the hymnal’s index and jot down the numbers of your favorite hymns. We hope to see a lot of early arrivals next weekend to praise God together in this special celebration of congregational song!

The Schola at 5:15

Last year, we instituted a new choir for the Sunday afternoon Masses at 5:15 PM. Comprising college-age and high school students with a heart for music ministry, these singers spend precious Sunday afternoon time rehearsing in order to elevate the prayers of the upcoming Mass through their leadership of hymns and responses, as well as in prelude music.

On the first Sunday of Advent, December 3, the Schola will present a special, extended prelude to the 5:15 PM Mass, based on the “O Antiphons.” Through music and the spoken word, though song and chant, we will explore the elements of “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel,” setting a tone of heightened anticipation for the coming of Christ in the Incarnation. Please consider coming at 4:30 PM on December 2 to experience this opportunity to pay attention to the change of liturgical seasons.

Our Weekly Parish Tithe

Kristen Lawson · kristen.n.lawson@gmail.com

The week’s tithe goes to Prisma Health’s Hospice of the Foothills to provide medical, nursing, spiritual, and emotional care to terminally ill patients and their families. Their goal is to provide the patient with quality care and make them as comfortable as possible in the last stage of life. Hospice care is offered in their facility in Seneca or the patient’s home. Care is available 24 hours a day. Hospice also provides emotional support for the families and patients to prepare all for the loss.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give it to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. – John 14:27

Next Week’s Special Collection: Campaign For Human Development

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ “... to bring glad tidings to the poor... liberty to captives... sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free.” (Luke 4:18). Please see the insert in today’s bulletin to learn more.

Christmas Bake Sale... and then some!

DECEMBER 9–10 • AFTER MASSES ON SATURDAY AND ON SUNDAY MORNING

In lieu of the Annual Bazaar (due to this year’s Clemson football schedule), the parish Bazaar Committee, Alive & Thriving Ministry, and Healing Prayer Ministry are working together to host a “Christmas Bake Sale... and then some.” Mark your calendars now! In addition to holiday baked goods and edible stocking stuffers, we will be serving chili or soup meals (eat in or take out), and providing free holiday activities for the children (3rd Grade and younger). Proceeds will be used toward the purchase of sacred vessels and liturgical books.

If you are willing to donate holiday baked goods or help out on the day of, please contact Debbie Larsen at larsen.deb@icloud.com.

Are you a busy (and tired) mom? Take some time away this Advent on a retreat just for Young Moms. Friday evening through Saturday evening, December 8–9 at Heart Ridge Retreat Center in Sunset, South Carolina. Go to www.heartridgeministries.com/momsadvent to receive more info or to sign up.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

LEARN about those living in poverty who are working to improve their communities. • ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier. • CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection. • PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

For more than 50 years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has supported organizations that combat poverty and improve the lives of people in communities across the United States. Not only do CCHD-funded organizations advocate with civic, business, and community religious leaders to improve access to affordable housing, job and educational opportunities, and rights for immigrants—they also respond quickly to urgent needs when communities experience emergencies.

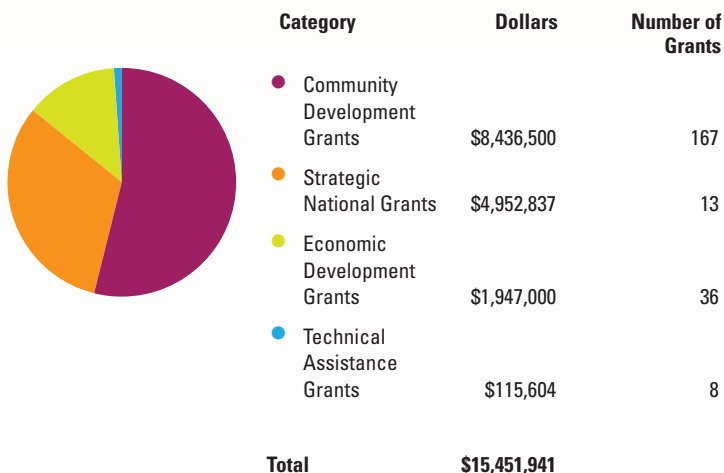

An effective response to natural disasters begins with effective planning before disasters occur. In New Orleans and surrounding areas in southern Louisiana, CCHD is helping Together New Orleans develop a project called Community Lighthouse, which will equip 85 congregations and community organizations with commercial-scale solar power and backup battery storage. This effort will form a network of response centers ready to serve communities in a hurricane or other natural disaster once the solar power equipment is completely installed. By using solar power and backup batteries, the response centers can continue operating in the event of power loss—but they will also be using clean, renewable energy rather than fossil fuels that contribute to climate change and pollution.

When you support CCHD, you help local communities across the country innovate and work together to solve their own unique challenges. Twenty-five percent of your contribution stays in your diocese to support the organizations addressing your community’s needs for housing, jobs, and educational opportunities—and for keeping the lights on during a storm.

To learn more about the collection for the CCHD and the way CCHD upholds the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church, visit www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

2021-2022 GRANTS

2021 EXPENSES

*Internal grants include a distribution from the CCHD collection for CCHD operations expenses and for the USCCB Justice, Peace, and Human Development’s education and outreach program, which includes engaging Catholics in our faith-filled call to address the root causes of poverty.
