

SAINT ANDREW CATHOLIC CHURCH

We Are a Stewardship Parish
Gratefully Giving Our Time, Talent, and Treasure in Service to God and One Another

January 14, 2024
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Christ Renews His Parish Men's and Women's Weekends

MEN: FEBRUARY 10-11 • WOMEN: MARCH 2-3 • NO OVERNIGHT STAY

Keep the Epiphany in your heart, mind, and soul. We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage. Ask the Lord if this year is the time for you to set aside a Saturday/Sunday with the men or women of the parish to further enhance your relationship with Christ. One participant said, "CRHP brought me closer to our Lord than I ever have been—even as a child. There is no one word to describe how I feel." Is Jesus calling you?

Relax and Renew... For more information or to register, contact the parish office or go to www.saclemson.org/christ-renews-his-parish.

Robert J. "Bobby" Conrad

CLEMSON 1980 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN ADDRESSES CSA • MARTIN HALL
JANUARY 18 • 6:00 PM • JAMBALAYA DINNER SERVED BEFORE PRESENTATION

Judge Conrad is a Senior U.S. District Judge of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of North Carolina, former ACC college basketball player, father, grandfather, coach, and amateur historian who examines the lives of John Fisher and Thomas More in his recent book "John Fisher and Thomas More: Keeping Their Souls While Losing Their Heads." He brings to life More and Fisher's examples of fidelity to a well-formed conscience, vision of eternal life with God, and willingness to die rather than sacrifice their faith. Judge Conrad will be sharing the lessons learned from More and Fisher and how they relate to the lives of today's university students.

Introducing Mass Totes for Saint Andrew Kids

Thanks to the members of our Saint Andrew Welcoming Committee, Mass Totes are available in the vestibule for use by children, Grade 1 and younger, during Mass. All should feel welcome to worship at Saint Andrew, including the very youngest among us. To keep the children engaged, totes, weekly activity sheets, and books will be available at the Saint Andrew Kids rack. While the weekly Mass-appropriate coloring and activity sheets are to be taken home, we ask that totes, their contents, and any books be returned to the rack at the end of Mass and not left in the pews.

A Note From the Pastor

With Christmas behind us and Lent yet to come, we're back each Sunday to "Ordinary Time." Precisely, the term refers to time that is "ordered" week-by-week: second, third, fourth, etc. But it also refers to the notion of "nothing special." No holidays or major feasts. Just the usual day-in-and-day-out of everyday activities. And therein lies the challenge of "ordinary time."

We can lapse into thinking that nothing significant challenges us, nor is anything special expected. And yet, it's in the Church's "Ordinary Time" that the Sunday Gospels take us week-by-week through the powerfully challenging ministry of Jesus. Week by week we'll be exposed to the "ordinariness" of Jesus' gospel. An "ordinariness" of life that calls you and me to a new way of seeing ourselves, others, and the workings of daily life in a new way.

"Ordinary time" is the context in which we live as "salt, light, and leaven." It's where the work of redemption that led Jesus to a Cross and Resurrection is played out. And as it played out for him, so it plays out for us. Daily conversation with God (aka, "prayer"), adoration (aka, "receiving the Eucharist as essential food for the journey and medicine for the soul") each Sunday and maybe even weekdays, dealing with the everyday challenges of family life and work with the "mind and heart of Christ," (aka, the Beatitudes).

We may find ourselves pining for celebration, breaks in what can seem "same old, same old." But "ordinary time" IS a celebration. Of what redeemed life looks like. Ordinary life is the environment in which we walk with Christ.

In a recent article I read, the author – writing on another topic altogether – described "collaboration." She pointed out that, in its positive sense, "collaboration" is the working together for a common good. In another sense, "collaboration" is collusion with persons and powers that we know to be false and/or dangerous, but embraced because they serve our proclivity for power, wealth, reputation, and comfort.

Ordinary time comes with the temptation to abandon working together for our common goal of making the Gospel the lens through which we see, understand, and engage life. Giving in to the opposites of the Beatitudes happens when we become "collaborators" with those persons and points of view we hope will end-run the challenges of the Gospel in favor of the above mentioned proclivities.

This challenge infuses ordinary time with tension. In simple terms, the challenge is between what we know to be right and what we know to be wrong but want a reason to champion. It's a challenge between God's dream for us and the dream we want a reason to have.

All of us look to a merry Christmas and a happy Easter, the special times. But it's in the ordinary time that the measure of our mettle as disciples is really tested. No one loses heaven for having an unmerry Christmas or an unhappy Easter. The loss comes when ordinary times becomes "ordinary."

Fr. Dan

Happy New Year and welcome back to all our university students! If you are a college student in the Clemson area, make sure you are registered with Catholic Tigers so you can get involved and stay up to date on everything going on with our campus ministry.

Healing Prayer Ministry

HEALING PRAYER IS OFFERED IN THE CHAPEL AFTER SUNDAY MORNING MASSES

Father, Son and Holy Spirit, direct and protect, guide and provide, inspire and set on fire my heart for Love of You and my neighbor in all things. Amen!

Our Weekly Parish Tithe

Kristen Lawson · kristen.n.lawson@gmail.com

The week's tithe goes to St. Clare's Home, a crisis maternity home that provides shelter, safety, security, and hope for those 18 or older experiencing a crisis pregnancy. St. Clare's opened its doors in Greenville County in August 2021 under the auspices of the Diocese of Charleston to meet the needs of pregnant women who need extra care. Staffed by the Sisters of St. Michael, the Archangel, St. Clare's offers residents a chance to learn parenting skills, gain independent living skills, and expand their education while in a safe and caring environment. Women, as well as their preschool children, are welcome to stay up to one year after their baby is born. To be accepted, applicants must be enrolled in a higher education program or have a part-time or full-time job. There can be no history of drug abuse or current and severe mental illness. The moms cook group meals, work or go to school, and even pray together while keeping a clean and orderly house.

"St. Clare's is an example of the Catholic community successfully working together with like-minded people to provide pregnant women and their children a place of love where they learn their dignity as children of God and how to care for themselves and their children," (Kathy Schmutge, Senior Director of Social Ministry and Family Life at St. Clare's).

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you.

Before you were born, I set you apart." – Jeremiah: 1:5

Student Dinners

We are asking Saint Andrew parishioners to once again volunteer to prepare food for our student dinners this spring semester. Dinners will be on Tuesday evenings at 6:00 PM in Martin Hall. If you, your friends, or your ministry group are able to provide a meal for about 100 students, please choose a date and sign up in the vestibule, or contact Stephanie Manasa (email stephanie@saclemson.org) for more information. Thank you!

Like a slumber party, but with comfortable beds, healthier foods, and much more sleep! See <http://www.HeartRidgeMinistries.com/MotherDaughter> for more information.

Cards are purchased at face value, and while they are used for their full face value, Saint Andrew also receives a percentage – yes, free money!
